Quiet Day

A day workshop at Winchester Meeting House

led by Andy Stoller and Linda Murgatroyd

Saturday 2nd September 10.00a.m. to 4.30p.m.

A day of reflection rooted in silent worship. As the summer draws to a close, this day offers an opportunity to reflect on our blessings and nourish our spirit for the next steps on our journey. Alternatively you could just come and use the quiet time and space as you feel led.

Optional activities will be offered, including a labyrinth in the garden and some art based activities and journaling. You might prefer to spend the whole day in an extended Meeting for Worship in the Quaker tradition.

Provisional timetable

- 10.00 Welcome and refreshments
- 10.30 Introduction to the day. Meeting for Worship starts
- 11.15 Optional activities
- 12.30 Silent bring and share lunch
- 1.15 Worship continues: further optional activities
- 2.45 Gather together for worship sharing and coming back into the world
- 4.00 Tea and Cake
- 4.30 Departures

Please book in advance with Andy Stoller: andystoller1@yahoo.co.uk 01962 861749

Cost: £5 includes all materials (payable in advance or on the day).

Early booking is helpful

Please bring some simple food to share for lunch.

Andy Stoller has experience in running workshops on various themes including Worship and Ministry; Linda Murgatroyd has used art to create spaces for spiritual nurture and exploration for some years, in Quaker circles and has run Quiet Days for Meetings.
