

Quaker Funeral wishes form

Hampshire and Islands Area Quaker Meeting

Version May 2020

When you fill in this form, you could consult your partner or spouse, your closest relatives or friends or others who will be responsible for making decisions about your funeral. You should lodge copies with them and, if you wish, with Elders or Overseers at your Quaker meeting. Please continue on additional sheets where needed.

Your name and address

Your Quaker Meeting

Please give the name and contact details of the person with whom a Friend appointed by your meeting can discuss arrangements for your funeral.

Do they know your funeral wishes?

If you have already made your arrangements in writing and left them with a Funeral Director or Solicitor or another person, please give their contact details. There is no need to complete the rest of the form except for your signature and date at the end.

Do you have a separate pre-paid funeral plan? If so, please attach it to this document and include the contact details of the people with whom you have deposited it

How would you like your body to be disposed? Please select one of the following:

Cremation

Where would you like your ashes scattered?

Burial

Green burial

Medical research

(If you chose this please select another choice as not all bodies are accepted for research purposes at the time of death)

Do you want a Meeting for Worship in the manner of Friends to be held at the same time as your cremation or burial?

Which Meeting House or Crematoria would you prefer to use?

Have you other directions for the service: for example, flowers, gifts to charities, the type of coffin, particular readings, music that might be played, a special person you wish to conduct the service (Quaker or not) etc.

Please give the contact details of anyone you want to be specially notified.

Should a notice be put in The Friend?

Local newspapers?

Do you want a Friends' memorial service later? And if so in any particular place?
